Well, well-as the semi-sosh remarked when he watched the elevator indicator move from 1 to 12-doesn't the time go fast when you're having fun?

One-this one, at least-doesn't read newspapers when one is vacationing. The war, we observed last night, is still progressing; and the campaign is just about where it was on the Saturday afternoon our candidate, Mr. Charles Evans Hughes, was nominated.

Smoking-car conversation is what we had been depending upon to find out how the West and the Middle West felt about the campaign. But all we overheard in a 50-hour trip was how many miles the Blink gets to the gallon and what hills the Blanx takes on intermediate. . . So our observation is that Hughes is as good as Ballade of a Traveller's Jinx.

Over the country, from coast to coast, I've travelled considerable, more or less; I've been to Canarsie and Painted Post, I've been to St. Louis and Holderness. But withersoever I may progress, With baggage enough for a fortnight's stay, I find, with a sorrow I can't repress, Mine is the trunk that goes astray.

I never-no never-was one to boast; Though me the Graces have seemed to bless With this honor, a greater than comes to most, I bear it meekly, without duress. Of other affairs I make no mess; I'm lucky at every game I play; Yet, packed with what clothing I may possess, Mine is the trunk that goes astray.

Others who travel comprise a host Carrying a million trunks, I guess, But never the shadow, hint or ghost Of a chance one goes to the wrong address. But my trunk travels the whole U.S .-Or, as some would put it, the U.S. A .-You ask me does it miscarry? YES! MINE is the trunk that goes astray.

L'ENVOL

Prince, it worries me, I confess, Every time that I go away. And this is my major and one distress: Mine is the trunk that goes astray.

Yes, it was cool up in the mountains, thank you. But it is cool in Minneapolis, too, where the Cedar Lake Ice Company advertises that it "has to-day 200,000 tons of pure, cold, natural lake ice." If you dislike the tepid ice you get in New York, move to

Among the things one learns reading time tables is the fascinating fact that the other name for Britain, Conn., is New Britain

OUR OWN TRAVELOGUES.

Sir: Coming over the Continental Divide, with the sun setting behind the snow peaks on the west and bathing the eastern wall with amethyst, a woman sat on the rear platform of the observation car and read Munsey's Magazine. Ain't Nature wonderful? WALTER PRICHARD EATON.

Opening a month's accumulation of mail is a pleasant task, so we decided, last night, to defer it until this morning. What decided us was the first letter. "It may interest you," it began, "to know that Charles B. Law is a justice of the Municipal Court, Borough of Manhattan, 7th District; that Edwin S. Post is the superintendent of delivery, New York Postoffice, and that Jacob Cash and Harry Walkoff are marshals of the City of New York.

The Boston Braves were overcome by Philadelphia in a peacherino of a struggle, by 2 to 1. The Phillies gained that verdict by virtue of their pitcher outguessing the bean-consumers in the pinches and forcing them to smite the ozone.-Paris, France, Herald. And yet foreigners think we are a strange people.

Cyrilling is a subject we resolved, in the rarefied air of Long's Peak, forever to stop discussing. But "please fill in the names and addresses," begs a dentifrice firm, "of four ladies whom you think would like to try a sample."

Cleanliness and Its w. k. Proximity to Godliness.

rom the Southampton (N. Y.) Seaside Timeal At St. Andrew's Dune Church Sunday morning, Bishop Frederick Burgess preached. There was an unusually large congregation. The vested choir of the cottage colony children is growing in size and enthusiasm. Several boys have joined it. Mrs. George Barton French continues to direct the singing. After church many went to the beach for bathing. Mrs. Alexander D. B. Pratt, who is the guest of Mrs. Joseph Dilworth, of Pittsburgh, were a bathing suit of purple jersey made all in one piece from the shoulders to hem of skirt, which was flounced with polka dot banding and worn over purple bloomers. A jaunty little cap completed the costume. Walking to the water she were a wrap of pongee trimmed in a contrasting Persian pattern. Others in the surf were Misses Caroline Putnam and Helen G. Trevor, Mrs. Lawrence Dunham, Mrs. Joseph Earle Stevens, in a yellow bathing suit, and Mrs. Alexandrine Walton, whose bathing suit was of an attractive shade of nile

"S. P. Brooks," says a Rockwall, Tex., dispatch to the Dallas News, "spoke here to-day to a large crowd. Dr. Brooks's speech was along the line of his other speeches." Why not, in view of the grave shortage in print paper, follow the News's style in New York? "President Wilson," the paper might say, "spoke to-day. It was about as usual."

In view of the grave shortage in print paper, this department will discuss in future only matters of tremendous moment.

THE COMPLEAT DOMESTIC ANGLER.

"WINDEMERE." MY SUBURBAN HOME, for sale; elegant home; all improve ments; fish pond and running water in house. Warren 5274-J. 130 E. Seneca St.

"When the third set was started," says the Syracuse Post-Standard, "the players on both sides were tied." The count being, the P.-S. doubtless means, even all around, with neither player ahead or behind.

Having been an actor, Allor is particularly sympathetic with the unfortunate.-Detroit Times. Perhaps Mr. Heywood Broun could make a Sunday story out

The abandonment of the streetcar strike disappointed us. In the event of a complete strike we should have instituted a flivver service for contributors.

wouldn't appreciably impair the service. The Guilty Feeling is experienced by a tenderfoot who goes up

The beauty of the Seventh Avenue car line is that a strike 12,000 feet and is unaffected by the altitude.

There is, as some one cleverly has phrased it, no place like Wherefore, on or about July 10, 1917, The Conning Tower will F. P. A. suspend for a month.

MISS L. PALMER WEDS ON SEPT. 2

Marriage to Henry Coster Will Take Place at Rye.

DANCE ON LAWN TO FOLLOW CEREMONY

Miss Sarah Hay Engaged to John N. Peters-Miss Cleveland at Gloucester.

Mr. and Mrs. George Quintard Palmer, of this city and Port Chester, N. Y., have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Lilian Adele Palmer, to Henry Coster Steers, of this city and Port Chester, on Saturday, September 2. The ceremony will be performed at 4 p. m. in Christ Church, Rye, and a large reception. with dancing on the lawn, will follow PLAGUE FEAR at Alden Farm, the country place of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, at Port Chester. Special cars will be atttached to the train laving Grand Central Station at 2:57 for the accommodation of New York guests, who will be taken by au-

York guests, who will be taken by automobile to the church and later to the reception.

Miss Paalmer will have her cousin, Miss Edna Holt, for her maid of honor, and another cousin, Miss Isabel Palmer, for her flower girl. Bridesmaids will be Miss Hope Williams, Miss Frances Ballard, Miss Josephine Bedle, Miss Virginia Cross, Miss Elizabeth Christie and Miss Josephine Bedle, Miss Virginia Cross, Miss Elizabeth Christie and Miss Josephine Bedle, Miss Virginia Cross, Miss Elizabeth Christie and Miss Josephine Bedle, Miss Virginia Cross, Miss Elizabeth Christie and Miss Josephine Bedle, Miss Virginia Cross, Miss Elizabeth Christie and Miss Josephine Bedle, Miss Virginia Cross, Miss Elizabeth Christie and Miss Josephine Bedle, Miss Virginia Cross, Miss Elizabeth Christie and Miss Josephine Bedle, Miss Virginia Cross, Miss Elizabeth Christie and Miss Josephine Bedle, Miss Virginia Cross, Miss Elizabeth Christie and Miss Josephine Bedle, Miss Virginia Cross, Miss Elizabeth Christie and Miss Josephine Bedle, Miss Virginia Cross, Miss Elizabeth Christie and Miss Josephine Bedle, Miss Virginia Cross, Miss Elizabeth Christie and Miss Josephine Bedle, Miss Virginia Cross, Miss Elizabeth Christie and Miss Josephine Bedle, Miss Virginia Cross, Miss Elizabeth Christie and Miss Josephine Bedle, Miss Virginia Cross, Miss Elizabeth Christie and Miss Josephine Bedle, Miss Virginia Cross, Miss Elizabeth Christie and Miss Josephine Bedle, Miss Virginia Cross, Miss Elizabeth Christie and Miss Josephine Bedle, Miss Miss Frances Bedle, Miss Miss Miss Frances Bedle, Mi d Miss Jeannette Blake. Charles R. C. Steers will be his Virginia Cross, Miss Elizabeth Christie and Miss Jeannette Blake.

Charles R. C. Steers will be his brother's best man.

John R. Hay announces the engagement of his daughter, Miss Sarah More and the plain dependence of the Society of the Cincinnati, and a granddaughter of Colonel Samuel Hay, a charter member of the Society of the Cincinnati, and a granddaughter of the Society of the Cincinnati, and the Society of the Cincinnati, and a granddaughter of the Society of the Cincinnati, and the Society of the Cincinnati, from their country place, Cairnemuir Farm, New City, N. Y.

MRS. WHITMAN IN AUTO

until October. They were at the Casino to-day, and received a welcome from their friends of the summer colony.

E. de P. Livingston. of New York, has arrived at the Muenchinger King, is at Batemans for the month. Having completed his term of training at Plattsburg, Joseph M. Gazzam, jr., has returned, joining his mother at the Lafarge.

a small dance, principally for young people, at her estate, Hammersmith Farm, to-morrow evening, and Mrs. Ogden Mills will give a dinner to-morhe disappeared believe him distribute his small estate. The last they saw of him was when he shipped on the steamship Monarch of the Sea in 1866. The vessel went down in midocean and all hands were lost. But the family refused to believe him drawmed.

SAILOR'S FAMILY WAIT

IN ALL BOROUGHS

CASES REPORTED YESTERDAY: Brooklyn 89 Manhattan Queens 31 The Bronx...... 15 Richmond DEATHS REPORTED YESTERDAY: Manhattan 14 Deaths Reported Tuesday ... 52 *TOTAL CASES: Brooklyn 3,417 Manhattan 1,165 Queens 607 Richmond The Bronx *Total Deaths 1,260 *Revised Health Department

Continued from page 1

Misa Marion Cleveland, daughter of the late President Grover Cleveland, is spending August at John Hays Hammend's country place, Fresh Water Cove, Gloucester, Mass.

Who are ill."

Seven Give Forty-four Ounces.

Forty-four ounces of blood, enough to treat more than twenty patients, were taken from seven volunteers who appeared at Willard Parker Hamital

Forty-six new paralysis cases at places outside the city were reported who have never come back, and one of its duties is to seek the relatives of these lost men. Only recently it found Michael Cullen, of 122 Sixth found Michael Cullen, of 122 Sixth Street, South Boston, a nephew.

Another nephew and a niece were discovered in New England, and a half-sixter, a nephew and a niece are in sixter, a niece are in sixter and niece are in sixte sister, a nephew and a niece are in Street, 212 West Eightieth Street, 304 444 K. Ireland. These will divide the estate. West Sixty-ninth Street, 854 Tenth Brighton.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS Argentina Complains of American Exporters CITY EMPLOYES

Mercantile Association Informs Consul General That Tribune Fund to Care for United States Business Men Violate Contracts and Ignore Agreements.

A charge that American manufact- tina that he gets more than he can urers in their dealings with Argentine handle, and then expects the customers importers have shown a lack of busiimporters have shown a lack of business honor, have violated their contracts and ignored their agreements, is contained in advices from the Buenos Ayres branch of the National City Bank of New York, made public last night by the New York office.

Manufacturers in New York were Manufacturers in New York were whom he cannot supply to make new arrangements.

Such a practice has been condoned in America because of the ease with which the customer generally may make the purchases from other sources, but it has caused incalculable inconvenience to Argentine merchants, according to the information in possession of the National City Bank.

An official of the bank said yester-

Manufacturers in New 1018 well day:
quick to resent the accusation. OffiThere is no excuse that can be made
"There is no excuse that can be made cials of manufacturers' and exporters' for it, and it would be well if responsiassociations ridiculed the idea that questionable business practices were at trade organizations could inaugurate some combined effort to reach the deall prevalent in the South American all prevalent in the South American linquents, whose practices injure the business interests of this country far out of proportion to their comparative number and importance in our business. branch follows:

"The Industrial Union of the Argentine, an association of manufacturers that includes the most prominent in the country, has addressed a formal communication to the consul general of the United States at Buenos Ayres. And exporting business were inclined last night to believe the charges against American business methods had been exaggerated. George S. Boudinot, secretary of the National Association of Manufacturers, 30 communication to the consul general of the United States at Buenos Ayres containing a protest against non-compliance on the part of United States manufacturers with the terms are communication to the consultation of Manufacturers, 30 Church Street, declared he did not believe the practices alleged were wide-spread or that an accusation of dishonorable methods was justified. DELAYS SCHOOLS communication to the consul general of the United States at Buenos Ayres sis will be the subject of discussion.
Federal surgeons now in New York have declared that only a rigid quarantine or medical supervision of all children who are travelling can check the plague.

183 New Cases Reported.
One hundred and eighty-three new cases in the five boroughs were reported by the Health Department yesterday, the same number as Tuesday.

mend's country place. From:

Cove. Gloucester. Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Osgood
Field are guests of Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt at Sagamore Lake, in the Adirondacks.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell H. Hoadley and Miss Helen A. Hoadley are at the Manoir Richelieu, Murray Bay, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy R. Pyne 1ro at the Muenchinger-King villa, Newport, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Francis Hyde have returned to their country place at Greenwich, Conn., from a trip to the Pacific Coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Gouverneur Morris

Mr. and Mrs. Gouve Mr. and Mrs. E. Francis Hyde have returned to their country place at Greenwich. Conn. from a trip to the Pacific Coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Gouverneur Morris Carnochan are in town for a few days from their country place, Cairns-muir Ferm, New City, N. Y.

Mrs. Robert D. Pruyn is a guest of Mrs. Robert D. Pruyn is a guest of Mrs. Gifford A. Cochran at Newport.

Mrs. Gifford A. Cochran

ederick
The interpolated and Allicon V. Armour on the Hurterid and All

13 Hall Street, 207 Hamburg Avenue, 22 George Street, 562 Gates Avenue, 536 Flushing Avenue, 28 Floyd Street, 1063 Eastern Parkway, 875 Dekalb Avenue, 86 Cooper Street, -178 Central Avenue, 1378 Baltic Street, 325 Bergen Street, 128 Paides Street, 422 Clinton Street, 18 Plattsburg, Joseph M. Gazzam, jr., has returned, joining his mother at the Lafarge.

Lafarge.

Mrs. Hugh D. Auchineloss will give a small dance, principally for young 422 Clinton Stret, 6 Avenue, 459 Hudson Avenue, 118 ment considers it dangerous for people to enter.

An appeal for donations of white enamelled iron baby cribs has been made by the Health Department, which still lacks several hundred.

Son Avenue, 43.9 Hundon Avenue, to appeal to enter.

In North Oxford Street, 17 Prospect Place, 253 Smith forced to remain outside the city limits waile Colyer answered the summons.

Twentieth Street, 609 Twentieth Street.

MONTCLAIR BARS POSTMASTER Queens.

SAILOR'S FAMILY WAIT

50 YEARS FOR ESTATE

Drowned Man Left Sum in Bank

—Six Will Divide $481.

For fifty years the relatives of James Cullen, a seaman, waited after he disappeared before taking steps to distribute his small estate. The last they saw of him was when he shipped on the steamship Monarch of the Sea in 1866. The vessel went down in midocean and all hands were lost. But the family refused to believe him places outside the city were reported yesterday to the State Health Department, making a total of 796, with years the culture, as total Oisy, with years the relatives of the epidemic. One hundred end thirty-nine cases were reported to the New Jersey Board of Health. Of these 105 were in Newark.

In view of the epidemic, the state board recommended to the Commissioner of Education, Calvin N. Kendall, that the opening of the New Jersey public schools in September be deferred. This recommendation will ocean and all hands were lost. But the family refused to believe him 445 Thirteenth Avenue, Astoria; 399 drowned.

Cullen had a small account with the Seamen's Bank of Savings, which now, with interest, is $481. The bank carries many accounts of men of the sea who have never come back, and one of its duties is to zeek the relatives of these lost men.

Only recently its to diddresses where cases of infantile paralysis have been found recently was made public yesford the sea who have never come back, and one of its duties is to zeek the relatives of these lost men.

Only recently its to diddresses where cases of infantile paralysis have been found recently was made public yesford the sea who have never come back, and one of its duties is to zeek the relatives of these lost men.

Only recently its to diddresses where cases of infantile paralysis have been found recently was made public yesfoliated.

Manhattan.

No. 307 East Eighty-fifth Street, St.

Vincent's Hall; Bergen Landing Road, Richmond Hill Circle; 23 Franklin Street, Jamaica; 83 Washington Street, Jamaica; 96 Gilbert Street, Jamaica; 150 Railroad Avenue, Jamaica; Hogan Street, South Jemaica; Berkeley Avenue, Springfield; Sendhurst Place. Brooklyn Hill; 35 Sendhurst Place, Brooklyn Hill; South Park Avenue, Hammels; North Chase Avenue, Hammels; Seuth Hammel Avenue, Hammels; Sea Girt Avenue, Far Rockaway.

Their Children with Country Vacations.

TO LEAVE NEW YORK LAST OF AUGUST

Work to Continue Longer than Usual Because of Schools' Late Opening Dates.

whereby the children of many of the mass when the heard anything of such as situation," he said. "There will a situation," he said. "There will be to send their children to the countwist which will oversell. A man in perfect honesty may take orders and then may not be able to fill all of them, but, of a merican manufacturers is concerned, I do not believe a word of it. We have no information that it has happened."

Justus Ruperti, of the firm of G.

Justus Ruperti, of the said. The source of the countries, said be no consistent of the source of the countries, and be no consistent of the countries, and the source of the countries had been occasioned by the maltroads some time ago by the giving of right of way to huge munition shipments to the All olles, but he knew of no specific instances of violation of contracts by an american manufacturers.

S. C. Mead, secretary of the Merchanta' Association, was without information of the conditions described by the National City Bank statement, the said, however, that the distribution of the conditions described by the National City Bank statement, the said, however, that the distribution of the conditions described by the National City Bank statement, the said, however, that the distribution of the conditions described by the National City Bank statement, the said, however, that the distribution of the conditions described by the National City Bank statement, the said, however, that the distributions to the stribution of the conditions described by the National City Bank statement, the said, however, that the distribution of the conditions described by the National City Bank statement, the said, however, that the distribution of the conditions described by the National City Bank statement, the said of the summary of the care of the conditions described by the National Ci on schedule time in September. The fund will therefore have a longer season than usual in which to send the needy little folk of the congested districts away for the change they need. The work of the fund will probably be continued until October 1 this year.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO THIBLYE FRESH AIR

CONTRIBUTIONS TO TRIBUNE FRESH AIR the St. Paul Union Stockyards Com-

R J Short
J M E.
Blam W Fisher, it
a H Q French
a M S Watts
best L Jones
L Matthews

Railroad Pioneer Dead.

THE REV. PARTICK J. QUINN.

The Rev. Patrick J. Quinn, rector of St. Mary's Catholic Church, at Hack-ettstown, N. J., died yesterday morn-ing after an illness of more than a year of lung trouble. He was forty-two years old and had been rector there a little more than a year.

Mahlon Smith, the engineer, who, on his twelve-year-old daughter to drive Ashis automobile, Richard B. Colyer, of Mrs. Jamesburg, was to-night fined $29 by Mrs. Commissioner William L. Dill, of the motor vehicle department, and the child's name was placed on the chauffeurs' blacklist of the state.

Due to the strict quarantine being maintained about Trenton to prevent spread of the infantile paralysis that she had been summoned to appear in court with her father, was forced to remain outside the city limits walls (Glarg acreated to the Contributions, preferably by check or money order, should be sent to the GRANT Suddenly, on August 9, Edgemere Club, Caroline Mar New York

Caldwell Official, Exposed to Plague, Under Health Board's Ban.

Postmaster Joseph A. Brady, of Caldwell, must stay outside the corporate limits of Montclair board of health has notified the Caldwell board.

Mahlon Smith, the engineer, who, on May 16, 1881, ran the first train between Nolan's Point and Highbridge, died yesterday at his home in Lake Hopatoong, N. J., from hardening of the arteries. He was fifty-seven years old. Interment will be in Locust Hill Cemetery, Dover, N. J., to-morrow after the control of the control Postmaster Joseph A. Brady, of Cald-well, must stay outside the corporate limits of Montclair for the next ten days, the Montclair board of health has notified the Caldwell board.

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY.

BORDER RELIEF

and if they take him away they should One of the cases was that of a Mrs.

Richmond Hopes Vanish.

Owing to the fact that only one new case was reported in Richmond last Sunday and none on Tuesday, officials on Avenue, 1394 Franklin of the Department of Health had below the Department of Health had b

Mr. Brady's son has been attacked by infantile paralysis and, it is said. Caldwell has given the postmaster permission not only to handle mail, but to reside temporarily in Montclair.

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY.

Free admission to the American Museum of Natural History, the Metropolitan Museum of Act and the Aquarlum.

Luncheon of the Hotary Club of New York, Hotsi McAlpin, 17 15 p. m.

Luncheon of the Hariem Board of Commerce, Pabet Hariem Casino, West 120th Street, attention.

Demonstration by Mrs. Frank Ewald on the making of the oream, National Housewire's League, 25 West York, Middle Housewire's League, 25 West York, Middle McAlpin, 2 p. m.

Organization meeting of the Sunset Club of New York, Hidel McAlpin, 2 p. m.

Dinner of the International Security Association, Malloy, Commissioner Arthur Woods and Conditions Among Negroes, Mother Zion A. M.

E. Church, 153 West 188th Street, 8:30 p. m.

EX-SENATOR THURSTON DIES

Represented Nebraska from 1896 to 1901

—Was McKinley's Adviser.

Omaha, Aug. 9.—John M. Thurston,
United States Senator from Nebraska from 1895 to 1901, died at his home here early to-day. He had been critically ill for four weeks, following heat prostration, and his death had been momentarily expected. Thrombo phlabitis was the immediate cause of death, according to the attending physicians.
Mr. Thurston was for several years general counsel of the Union Pacific Railway Company. He was sixty-nine years old. His wife and two daughters were at the bedside.

years old. His wife and two daughters were at the bedside.

Mr. Thurston was born at Montpelier, Vt., August 21, 1847. He was one of President McKinley's closest advisers, and during his service in Congress won national notice as an orator. In 1872 he married Miss Martha Poland, daughter of Colonel Luther Poland, of Omaha. She died in 1898, and the next year he was married to Lola, daughter of William J. Purman, former Congressman from Florida, who survives.

New Brunswick, N. J., Aug. 9.- John

ENGAGED. PETERS-HAY Mr. James R. Hay, of Nutley, N. J. announces the en-gagement of his daughter, Sarah Moyer, to Mr. John Navarre Malcom

Farrand, Jane B. Petschek, Isidor, Grant, Caroline M. White, Richard R, Pedrick, Loretto M.

day, August 11, at 3:30 p. m.

PEDRICK Loretto M. Pedrick, beloved wife of William J. Pedrick, jr., and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Y. Drummond. Funeral Saturday, August 12, from the residence of her parents, 423 West 120th st., thence PETSCHEK-On August 9, Isidor Petschek, beloved husband of Rosa Petschek, aged 57 years. Funeral private.

1:07 train at Beacon.

Junction. Besides his mother he leaves two sisters. Burial will be fil St. Raymond's Cemetery, West Chester.

FRESH AIR AID FOR HUNDREDS AT FUNERAL OF JUSTICE I. F. DALY

60 Orphans Present-Cardinal Farley Pronounces Absolution. The funeral of Justice Joseph F. Daly, of the Supreme Court, who occupied the bench for twenty-eight years, was held yesterday from the Church of St. Vincent Perrer, East Sixty-seventh Street, in the presence of hundreds. In reserved pews sat sixty little orphans from the Roman Catholic Or-phan Asylum, of which the late jurist was a director. Near them sat dignitaries of the Roman Catholic Church, well known members of the New York bar, actors, representatives of the Players' Club, which Justice Daly helped found, and members of Irish societies in which he had been active. Cardinal Farley, attended by his personal secretary and Vicar General M.

Arrangements were made yesterday thereby the children of many of the ity's employes will have country vacatrade organizations could inaugurate some combined effort to reach the delinquente, whose practices injure the business interests of this country far out of proportion to their comparative number and importance in our business community."

Men interested in the manufacturing and exporting business were inclined last night to believe the charges against American business methods had been exaggerated. George S. Boudinot, secretary of the National Association of Manufacturers, 30 Church Street, declared he did not believe the practices alleged were widespread or that an accusation of dishonorable methods was justified.

Have Heard Nothing.

"We haven't heard anything of such a situation," he said. "There will always be a negligible number of firms which will oversell. A man in perfect honesty may take orders and them my take orders and them my take orders and them my take orders and them way he honesty may take orders and them such and the manufacturers and the manufacturers and the manufacturers and the manufacturers and the mentods was justified.

But this summer.

The idea of arranging vacations for the idea of arranging vacations for the dark summer.

The idea of arranging vacations for the summer.

The idea of arranging vacations for the send this summer.

The idea of arranging vacations for the summer.

The idea of arranging vacations for the Manufacturer, of which Archibald Ferguson, secretary to the see children originated in the Manufacture, of which Archibald Ferguson, secretary to the summer.

Among the diverge of St. Ferrer's Church. The music was furnished by a male quartet, which chanted Peroxi's male voice was furnished by a male quartet, which chanted Peroxi's male voice which chanted, for the Manufacturer, of which Archibald Ferguson, secretary to the Manufacturer, of which Archibald Ferguson, secretary to the summer.

Among the dicard the did not believe the practices and summer a number of employes, chiefly cleaners and lenry A. Gildersleeve.

Pallevarior of St. Ferrer's Church. The music was fu

-Was McKinley's Adviser.

JOHN J. BOULGER, JR.

J. Boulger, jr., twenty-eight years old, a wholesale liquor merchant, of New York, died suddenly at his home here last night, from ptomaine poisoning. He was a member of the Middlesex County Democratic Committee, of the Eagles, and of the Holy Name Society. Boulger was married three years ago to Miss Margaret McGovern.

Notices of marriages and deaths must be accompanied by full name and address,

FARRAND—At Elizabeth, N. J., August 9, 1916, Jane B., widow of Joseph Steevens Farrand, in the 71st year of her age: Funeral services at Christ Church, Elizabeth, N. J., Fri-

Edgemere Club, Caroline Manice, widow of the late Dr. Gabriel Grant and daughter of the late William de Forest Manice. Notice of funeral ser-vice hereafter.

parents, 423 West 120th st., thence to the Church of Corpus Christi, Broadway and 121st st., where a sol-emn requiem mass will be offered at 10 a. m. Interment Calvary Ceme-

WHITE—At Washington, D. C., August 8, 1916, Richard Ratalje, son of Dr. Howell and Elizabeth Cotheal White, aged 26 years. Funeral services will be held Friday, August 11, 1916, at 2:30, from the home of his parents, Fishkill, N. Y. Autos will meet the two years old and had been rector there a little more than a year.

Born at West Chester, N. Y., Father Quinn was ordained a priest at Niagara University on April 8, 1905. For eight years he was a curate of a church at Phillipsburg, having gone there from East Millington, where he was in charge of a parish for more than two years. During his curacy there he established a church at Monmouth Junction. Besides his mother he leaves